

RADIAN

in operation

RADIAN SOLAR FACILITY HIGHLIGHTS

Located in Brown County, Texas, (House District 68 and Senate District 10), the Radian Solar Facility generates 415 MWp of reliable solar power, enough to power more than 114,000 homes. Radian created more than 500 jobs at peak construction, supports local businesses, and significantly increases tax revenues all while delivering clean, affordable power to Texans, even on the hottest days, for the next 30 years.

RADIAN
AT-A-GLANCE

903,228
solar panels

415 MWp
of reliable solar power

- More than 114,000 homes powered; this is equal to twice the size of House District 68 in which the project is located
- Over 500 jobs created at peak construction and more than 8 permanent operations jobs
- Nearly $5 million a year in direct investment in Brown County, Texas
- Utilized First Solar modules made in the Midwest